Dear Mr. Parker:

This is in response to your U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request (GSA- 2015-000832), submitted on June 1, 2015 in which you requested:

“Any and all records, emails, attachments, and data of any nature, in any and all formats, that were sent to, received from, or interacted with in any capacity, any of the following domain names:

- clintonemail.com
- chelseaooffice.com
- presidentclinton.com
- mail.president.clinton.com
- printer.presidentclinton.com
- wjcoffice.com.”

Enclosed, please find the documents responsive to your request. In processing the initial FOIA request, GSA withheld the actual signatures, cell phone numbers, along with the email addresses and telephone numbers of private individuals in accordance with the sixth exemption of FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6). This was done because public disclosure of this information would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

In addition, GSA withheld company/vendor account numbers, cost and financial data such as TIN numbers, technical expertise and techniques as well as sensitive occupancy agreement related information pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), as this is commercial or financial information that is considered privileged or confidential. This information falls within the scope of the fourth exemption as its release is likely to cause substantial competitive harm to the submitters. .

Further, all floor plans and descriptions of secured areas have been withheld pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5) and (b)(7)(f), as this information could risk circumvention of agency regulations, policies and procedures and allow the compromise of the safety of persons and/or property.
